Volume 42, Issue 4

As we enter into the last two months before the election I would like to share with you a recent statement from our Presiding Bishop, Michael Curry.

“This November we will gather together as a nation to vote not only to elect a new president but to elect governmental leaders on a variety of levels.

We are blessed. We are blessed as a nation to be able to do so as citizens of this country. This is a right, an obligation, and a duty. And indeed the right and the privilege to be able to vote is something that was won through an American revolution. Something that was won even more through civil rights and women's suffrage. A right and a privilege that was won for all. So I encourage you to please go and vote. Vote your conscience. Vote your perspective. But vote.

But it's not just simply a civil obligation and duty. Voting and participation in our government is a way of participating in our common life. And that is a Christian obligation. Indeed, we who follow in the Way of Jesus of Nazareth are summoned to participate actively as reflections of our faith in the civil process.

In the thirteenth chapter of Romans, sometimes a chapter that is debated among scholars and among Christians, St. Paul reminds us that we have a duty and an obligation to participate in the process of government, “For that is how our common life is ordered and structured.” And at one point he actually says, “For the same reason,” going on, he's expanding, he says, “For the same reason you also pay taxes for the authorities are God's servants, busy with everything.” That's probably very true. “Pay to all them that is due them. Taxes to whom taxes are due. Revenue to whom revenue is due. Respect to whom respect is due. Honor to whom honor is due.” Now he's talking about the role of government as helping to order our common life. But here's what I want you to really hear.

He continues and says:

“So owe no-one anything except to love one another. For the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments ‘You shall not commit adultery’, ‘You shall not murder’, ‘You shall not steal’, ‘You shall not covet’, any other commandment, they are all summed up in this word: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself’. Love does no wrong to a neighbor, therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.”

For St. Paul, the way of love, the love of neighbor, is the fulfilling not only of the moral law of God, but the way to fulfill the civil law.

Go and vote. Vote your conscience. Your conscience informed by what it means to love your neighbor. To participate in the process of seeking the common good. To participate in the process of making this a better world. However you vote, go and vote. And do that as a follower of Jesus.

The Most Rev. Michael B. Curry
Presiding Bishop and Primate
The Episcopal Church

On the evening before and morning of (November 7-8) the election an all-night prayer vigil will be at St. Andrew's to pray for wisdom, the nation and the human family. This will be an opportunity to gather together for a time of quiet reflection, formal worship and doing the work to the Church by offering our prayers individually and as a community. Details and a full schedule of this event will be published in the next edition of the Network.

Stewardship: 2017 Annual Giving Campaign

The 2017 Annual Giving Campaign is underway. In pulpit talks this fall some of your fellow parishioners will describe why and how St. Andrew's is an important part of their life. We hope these reflections will be helpful in your contemplation of our parish's meaning and value in your life – discerning how you might support St. Andrew's through your own personal gifts of time, talent, and treasure.

The St. Andrew's Annual Giving Campaign is our annual parish drive asking for your financial commitment to the Church based on the spiritual value you hold for our parish and the larger Church. This campaign is the principle source of revenue that supports our clergy, administration, and our ministries, maintains the buildings and equipment, sustains the quality and the character of our community, and makes available those vital resources for spiritual and temporal guidance and assistance during times of special need.

St. Andrew's operating finances are challenged each year because pledge and plate income do not cover expenses. Unanticipated gifts at the end of the year have sometimes closed the gap we saw in January. However, this is not always the case; as a consequence, the Vestry and Finance Committee include St. Andrew's investment income in our operating budget to make up for shortfalls between revenue and costs. As investment income is never guaranteed, it is important to recognize that St. Andrew's financial health (and therefore our ministries' health) could be improved if the Annual Campaign pledge revenue was more in line with our operating costs.

To this end, we request that everyone prayerfully consider increasing their giving as much as they are able. A 5% increase is the suggested amount. But, as in all earlier Annual Campaigns, we also strive to attain the goal of expanded participation. This is a critical element to put our annual finances on a more sustainable path.

We have much to be thankful for and to celebrate. We have a vibrant spiritual home in St. Andrew's because of the people who come here and who give of the best of themselves to our life in this place. Your ministry of financial support helps sustain our church building, our dedicated clergy and staff, and all the good that St. Andrew's does through the many different ministries: the eight weekly liturgies that offer distinct worship experiences to a broad range of people, our beautiful music programs, the church school, the Breakfast, the pastoral care ministries for the sick and the homebound, resources to provide aid and counseling for families in crisis, and responding to unjust social and economic policies. Your financial support and commitment, that helps make all of this happen, is personal; it's a private prayer between you and God and it is a ministry that measurably sustains and advances the St. Andrew's community. We thank you for your continued generosity of your time, talents, and treasure.

Stewardship Committee Co-Chairs

Finance

HAVE YOU...
remembered
St. Andrew's
in your will?

It is important that every adult make a will providing for the distribution of their assets to the people, causes and institutions they love. If you would like to make a provision in your will to leave a bequest to St. Andrew's, the wording should read:

I give to St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Ann Arbor, Michigan the sum of ____ dollars or ____ percent of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate.

A bequest to St. Andrew's is a way to ensure the continued ministry of this parish church in our community. The rector, vestry and wardens thank you for your consideration of such a gift.

Church School Happenings

Welcome Back!

Thank you to our Church School families and friends for your support as we begin the 2016 - 2017 Church School year. A special thank you to the volunteer teachers that share their time and talent as stewards of God's educational ministry. Working together, we foster a creative and meaningful foundation for teachers, parents, and families to collectively support faith formation for our children and youth.

2016-2017 Church School Registration

Late registration will also be available in the Parish Lobby prior to the 10:00 am service on subsequent Sundays. Classes meet Sundays at 9:45 am. We join our families for communion and enter the sanctuary during the Children's Entrance Hymn at the offertory around 10:45 am. (Note: YAC has a varied meeting schedule).

Visit the Classroom

The door is always open to parents, families and parishioners to visit the classrooms. See how the curriculum works, get to know the teachers and share a learning experience with the children. Intergenerational participation is encouraged.

Ice Cream Social & Coffee Hour

Entire Parish Invited!

As part of the first day of Church School, the entire parish is invited to the annual Ice Cream Social & Coffee Hour at 11:30 am on Sunday, September 11. Let's take this moment to celebrate our faith community with the entire parish! Come and catch up on summer activities, reconnect with returning families and help us as we welcome our newest friends into the Church School family.

Parent Helping Hands

Classroom Sign Up:

Your Commitment is Needed!

This year we are asking parents to sign up to volunteer as "helping hands" in the classroom once a quarter. Following a successful implementation in the pre-school Morning Glories classroom last year we would like to grow this practice through the elementary grades.

The extra helping hands not only assist the teachers in the classroom, but provide a wonderful opportunity for parents to share special time with their child exploring Bible stories, making a craft, or singing a song. Parents, this is also a great chance to learn more about your child's classroom curriculum and goals.

With support from parents during Church School classes we create an environment that more fully "nurtures the gift of faith." Our children learn to move from their natural faith to a deeper and more personal faith, trusting in God's love and care.

Please take the time to see your child's classroom teacher to select a few dates in this upcoming year. Thank you for your support and making this commitment.

Marketplace: Thank you Volunteers!

Thank you to all of the wonderful adult and youth volunteers that helped make our annual June Vacation Bible School Marketplace 29 A.D. "Life in Jesus' Time" a success. Once again we saw a banner year of participation with over 100 campers enjoying a captivating Bible time experience.

Our thanks to the Tribal Parents, Shopkeepers and Set Up volunteers; Linda Aldrich, Anna Dutton, Calesta and Chad Harrison, Bill Loomis, Allan McKim, Mil Taylor and from St. Luke's The Rev. JoAnn Slater and Andy Douglass. Our youth groups also made huge contributions to the overall event as Tribe Teen Assistants and Shopkeeper Apprentices in the various Marketplace Shops. Thank you to Juliette & Alex Harrison, Luka & Maks Jurasek, Tasha Loomis, Peter Nemecek, and Carolyn Sackett.

Our fantastic drama troupe led by Nancy Heusel included Hilary Garton, Steve Jones, Jean McKim, Kira Shaffer (youth) Jim Wessel Walker and a little "stand up" help from campers Fan Burhenn and Danielle Sackett too. A special thank you to Phil MacBride for making all the wood hammer components for the Carpentry Shop and Mary Jane Williams for pre-cutting fabric for the Dye Shop. The help of all of these people created so much fun and joy not only for the children, but a rewarding experience for the volunteers as well.

Mark your calendars now for next year: June 20-23, 2017!

Tales from the Journey

A New Youth Cycle Begins!

This fall we begin a new two-year cycle in the Journey to Adulthood youth program with an emerging group of young teens in Rite 13, an eager J2A class preparing for their Pilgrimage in 2018, a group of young adults recently completing their own pilgrimage and mostly equipped to assume adult ministries as Young Adults in the Church (YAC), and our high school seniors formulating plans for graduation in the spring.

Our youth program continues to evolve through the creative leadership and talents of the teachers, commitment of parents and guidance of the clergy and staff. With each year, new ideas, activities, and resourceful leadership in the teaching teams enhance and complement the program's basic tenets of Scripture, Tradition & Reason, instilling a formational path; helping our youth grow in faith, wisdom and knowledge.

Rite 13 Parent Meeting Sunday, September 25

A meeting is planned for parents and teens of Rite 13 (Grades 6 & 7) on Sunday, September 25 from 11:15 am to 12:15 pm in the Rainbow Room. Brunch and a brief overview of the Journey to Adulthood program and in particular the first two-year phase of Rite 13 will be covered.

In faith, hope and love,

Director of Children & Youth Ministries

J2A Pilgrimage: June 2016

A Sacred Journey to Harpers Ferry & Washington DC

The J2A Pilgrimage is a sacred journey for our youth shaped to experience God in a new way; a place outside their normal ordinary lives with the purpose of creating an experience full of opportunity for spiritual growth, discovery and ultimately strengthening their relationship with God.

After four years of study and preparation, the eighth group of J2A pilgrims began their Pilgrimage journey to Harpers Ferry in West Virginia. Nestled between green mountains at the confluence of the Potomac and Shenandoah rivers it offered splendid nature, hallowed ground and a region richly steeped in history spanning America's 200 plus years.

The youth contributed to the elements of their itinerary, including a labor intensive environmental service project for the Appalachian Trail Conservancy, and exploring Antietam National Battlefield as well as other battlefields in this historical area. They also enjoyed a fun day of river rafting and zip-lining through God's abundant and beautiful nature. The final days of the pilgrimage were in Washington D.C. where they visited the National Cathedral, Franciscan Monastery & Catacombs, and the Basilica National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. Eager to learn more about the city, small groups independently explored the monuments on the Mall, the National Archives, and Smithsonian Museum of Natural History.

Staying at hostels with modest accommodations provided an opportunity for the pilgrims to share in the planning and preparation of their daily meals and activities. They were challenged to work as a team, nurture their spirit, search out opportunities for discernment, and grow in respect and care for each other. At the close of each day, group and individual contemplation, reflection, prayer and journaling were part of their evening custom.

The pilgrims are eager to share more about their Pilgrimage with the congregation at the Church School Day and YAC Liturgy on October 30

Education for Ministry

EfM at St. Andrew's returns Monday, September 12, from 6:30 -9:00 pm in the Lounge and continues to meet weekly throughout the school year.

Why Education for Ministry? In the Outline of Faith in the back of our prayer book, the answer to the question "Who are the ministers of the Church?" is "The ministers of the Church are lay persons, bishops, priests, and deacons" (page 855).

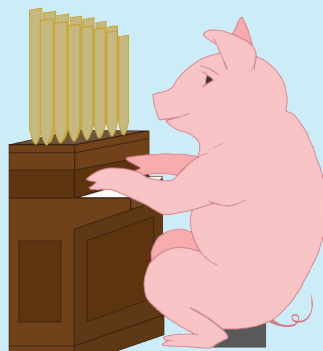

Through reading, study, prayer, and discussion, participants in EfM are encouraged to better understand and take on our role as ministers of the church. Following Paul's advice, we are encouraged to "test everything" (1 Thessalonians 5:21), asking questions like "What do I believe about God? about how God and humans relate? about God's creation?" And, importantly, we ask what we're supposed to do in response to these questions. Even when answers lead to more questions, our reflections leave space for thinking about how to put our understandings to work in our daily lives, at personal, institutional, and global levels.

Education for Ministry is a distance-learning course run by the University of the South, with hundreds of local groups like ours around the country. EfM is a four-year program, in which participants are asked to commit to one year at a time. In the first year, we read the Hebrew Scriptures; second year the New Testament. Those in the third year study church history, while the fourth year is devoted to contemporary theological choices. In addition, the entire group reads two short books to discuss together (for 2016-7, the texts will be "Transformed Lives: Making Sense of Atonement Today" by Cynthia S.W. Crysdale, and "Care for Creation" by Ilia Delio, Keith Douglas Warner, Pamela Wood).

To register, or if you have questions, please contact Larry Tweedle (734-547-0164, tweedlelarry@gmail.com) or Mandy Davis (661-904-6432, madavi@umich.edu). You can also visit efm.sewanee.edu for general information about Education for Ministry.

Coventry Supper

What is a Coventry Supper? During World War II the beautiful cathedral at Coventry, England was nearly destroyed by bombs. The parishioners held evening suppers in their homes as a way of keeping their community together. St. Andrew's has adopted this concept in an effort to have our community get to know each other better. It is a wonderful way to get to know others who are a part of the St. Andrew's family.

Those who sign up will be placed in groups of eight that will gather for potluck suppers during the year. Once the groups are assigned, one person will call the others to arrange the first gathering, host the first supper, and provide the main dish. Everyone brings a dish for the meal. The idea is for each person to host the group during the year. The purpose is fellowship; it is not intended as an occasion to drag out the fine linens and silver!

It is suggested that groups meet at least every four to six weeks. We hope that you will join us. Otherwise, it will be the same folks meeting with those with whom they have already had the chance to meet.

Contact Sharon MacBride at (734)369-6640 or email pkmacb@gmail.com.

The East Window

When the church was built in 1867, there was a raised platform at the east end of the nave at the first pillar. Above the Gothic Arch over the chancel was inscribed "Mine House shall be called House of Prayer for All People"(Isaiah 56:7). The chancel extended about six feet back from the arch with a modest altar. There were three lancet windows in the east wall, similar to the three in the west wall, with a figure of St. Andrew in the center window, a sheaf of wheat in the right window and a bunch of grapes in the left.

When the Reverend Tatlock arrived from Trinity Church on Wall Street in New York, he was determined to have a vested choir of men and boys, which was initiated in 1890. In 1894, the chancel was extended eastward and the Rev. Tatlock communicated with his previous Bishop in New York about obtaining a stained glass window to replace the triplex windows. He was referred to Charles Booth, an English-trained craftsman who had a studio in New Jersey, and arranged to purchase for $600 a replica of a window Booth had installed in a church in England.

A pictorial window, the central figure is an Angel seated in the tomb. In the left panel are figures of two women, thought to be Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, the mother of James. In the right panel, is a figure thought to be the Apostle John or the other woman, Salome. In the distance on the right is the hill, Golgotha, surmounted by three crosses. Below the window is the inscription "He is not here, he has risen."

The window is a memorial to Ebenezer Wells (1815-1882) and his daughter Lillian (1856-1890). Dr. Wells was a physician and vestry-member for many years, twice Mayor of Ann Arbor, and President of the First National Bank. The Wells House on the northeast corner of N.

Division and Ann Street is still standing. Wells Street by Burns Park is named for Ebenezer Wells.

See How They Run

A theatrical gem!

The Saint Andrew's Players will launch the fall season with a delightful comedy, See How They Run, on Saturday October 15 at 7:30 pm and Sunday, October 16 at 4:00 pm as a fundraiser for the Organ Project.

Our cast from St. Andrew's presented this play a few years ago in another theatre and think you will really enjoy it! Written by Philip King, this farce was a big hit in London when first produced. Galloping in and out of an English vicarage are an American actor and actress, a cockney maid, an old librarian who "touches alcohol for the first time in her life," four men in clergyman suits presenting the problem of which is which, for disguised as one is an escaped prisoner, and a sedate Bishop aghast at the situation.

No reserved seats, donations gladly received to benefit the Organ Project.
