Outside the Inn has become a classic in churches around the country. St. Andrew's Players and Church School have performed it several times over the years. It has a gentle humor in telling the Nativity story.

You will meet all of the traditional biblical characters as they travel toward Bethlehem and will discover that they are all interesting and funny people with serious problems to overcome. The innkeeper is the fulcrum of this play, as she reminisces about the first Christmas.

Spoiler alert: the Wilson family is all of us, looking for a place to live and fit in and stumbling upon something really big in the process.
