The Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost 8:00 & 10:00 am: Holy Eucharist

Welcome to Saint Andrew's

Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith, you are welcome here.

Please fill out a welcome card, found in the pew rack, then put it in the offering plate or give it to one of the clergy following the service so that we can be in touch with you. For more information about St. Andrew's, speak to the volunteer at the Information Table in the Chapel lobby.

If you have a hearing aid equipped with telecoil capability, please note that the church sanctuary has been equipped with this technology.

The Eucharist

The celebration of the Holy Eucharist is an act of joy and praise, which draws its principal meaning from the Easter proclamation of the resurrection. All who are drawn to God and seek Christ are welcome to receive communion.

Wafers will be used for the communion bread. Wine will not be offered. Communion will be distributed at the foot of the chancel steps for those wishing to partake. Ushers will direct you to form a single line down the center aisle as you approach the altar.

Children

A Nursery for infants through toddler age is available during the 10:00 am service, located on the second floor of the Parish Hall. Children and youth in preschool through high school attend Church School from 9:45 am until they join their families during the Children's Entrance Hymn.

Today

We welcome trumpeter Kiri Tollaksen and her students Ryo Morita (11th grade, Pioneer) and Mia Sanborn (11th grade, Pioneer). Both Ryo and Mia have studied with Kiri for several years. They would like to dedicate their performance to Suzanne Ross and the Ross family.

Offering plates have been placed in the aisle to receive your offering as you come to communion or you can give online at:

I love the Lord, because he has heard the voice of
my supplication, *
because he has inclined his ear to me whenever
I called upon him.
The cords of death entangled me;
the grip of the grave took hold of me; *
I came to grief and sorrow.
Then I called upon the Name of the Lord: *
"O Lord, I pray you, save my life." [ANT.]

Gracious is the Lord and righteous; *
our God is full of compassion.
The Lord watches over the innocent; *
I was brought very low, and he helped me. [ANT.]

Turn again to your rest, O my soul, *
for the Lord has treated you well.
For you have rescued my life from death, *
my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling. [ANT.]

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem: Dear Lord and Father of Mankind .....
Charles Hubert Hastings Parry (1848-1918)
St. Andrew's Adult Choir

Dear Lord and Father of mankind, forgive our foolish ways; reclothe us in our rightful mind; in purer lives, thy service find, in deeper rev'rence, praise.

Drop thy still dews of quietness, till all our strivings cease; take from our souls the strain and stress, and let our ordered lives confess the beauty of thy peace.

Breathe thro' the heats of our desire thy coolness and thy balm; let sense be dumb, let flesh retire; speak thro' the earthquake, wind, and fire, o still, small voice of calm.

In simple trust like theirs, who heard, beside the Syrian sea, the gracious calling of the Lord, let us, like them, without a word, rise up and follow thee.

Children's Entrance Hymn: Jesus Loves Me ..... LEVAS, no. 218

We will repeat this hymn for a month to better allow our Church School members to participate in the Children's Entrance Hymn.

Music Notes

Hymn Sing

Today as we gather for our first full Eucharist in 19 months we begin with a hymn-sing celebration. We sing through the Church Year we missed with selected verses from parish favorites from all seasons. How do we know they're favorites? These hymns were "top of the charts" in our hymn-raisers for the organ campaign in 2016 and 2018. O sing to the Lord anew with old songs! O praise ye the Lord! -- Donna Wessel Walker

Dear Lord and Father of Mankind (Parry)
This morning's anthem by Charles Hubert Parry (1848-1918) is a Hymn-Anthem of the type that came into vogue in late Victorian and Edwardian England. The traditional English anthem was based on a prose text taken from the Bible, often one of the Psalms, or occasionally from the Book of Common Prayer. The vocal resources of the choral foundations attached to cathedrals and universities were ideally suited to this repertoire. In the 19th century, hymns with metrical texts began to be widely sung in Anglican parish churches; this trend culminated in 1906 with publication of the English Hymnal edited by Ralph Vaughan Williams. At the same time, parish choirs began to sing the traditional cathedral repertoire. This morning's anthem makes use of Parry's own hymn tune Repton which appears as No. 653 in the Hymnal 1982.
