8:00 & 10:30 AM: HOLY EUCHARIST

WELCOME TO SAINT ANDREW'S

Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith, you are welcome here.

Please fill out a welcome card, found in the pew rack, then put it in the offering plate or give it to one of the clergy following the service so that we can be in touch with you.

 If you have a hearing aid equipped with telecoil capability, please note that the church sanctuary has been equipped with this technology.

The celebration of the Holy Eucharist is an act of joy and praise, which draws its principal meaning from the Easter proclamation of the resurrection. All who are drawn to God and seek Christ are welcome to receive communion.

Please follow the directions of the ushers to come up for communion. Wafers will be used for the communion bread. Wine will not be offered. Communion will be distributed at the foot of the chancel steps for those wishing to partake.

There is no childcare, nursery, or Church School today.

Easter Egg Hunt: Today at 9:45 am and at the conclusion of the 10:30 am service. Participants, please gather in the Lobby.

PRELUDE

Joyful Easter Dayarr. Vicki Hancock Wright
St. Andrew's Junior Choir and Junior Handbell Choir (10:30 am only)

Joyful Easter day when the stone was rolled away, Alleluia! Jesus Christ is ris'n today! Christ our Lord and Savior died for you and me. Now he lives forever, he has set us free! When I look upon the cross, I know God is love. We are called to serve and praise God's name above.

Ballo da Turca.....Giovanni Battista Martini (1706-1791)
University Student Chamber Orchestra

Capriccio Kevin McChesney (b. 1963)
St. Dunstan Handbell Choir

Antiphonal Alleluia.....James Brighton
St. Andrew's Junior and Cherub Choirs (10:30 am only)

Alleluia, Christ is risen! Christ has conquered death and grave. Risen now, he comes to save. Sound the trumpet, tell the good news, Christ is alive! Sing out with gladness, sing out with joy: Jesus Christ is risen, rejoice!

Credo, Mass in C, KV 257Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756-1791)
St. Andrew's Adult Choir and University Student Chamber Orchestra

Translation available in the Prayer Book, page 358

Carillon de Westminster Louis Vierne (1870-1937)

This piece ends with full organ, which reveals the full sound of our recently completed organ! The last to be finished were the reed stops, which are the crowning glory of the organ, adding brilliance, color and drama to the full organ sound.

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Processional Hymn: Jesus Christ is Risen Today, Alleluia! Hymnal, no. 207

Opening Acclamation

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen!

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Kyrie/Gloria: Mass in C, KV 257..... Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart
(The congregation is seated) Prayer Book, page 356

Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen. (The congregation is seated)

THE WORD OF GOD

First Lesson: Acts 10:34-43

Then Peter began to speak to them: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

Psalm 118: 1-2, 14-24

(Congregation sings verses in bold)

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;*
his mercy endures for ever.

Let Israel | now pro|claim,*
“His | mercy en|dures for|ever.”

The Lord is my strength and my song,*
and he has become my salvation.

There is a sound of exul|tation and | victory*
- | in the | tents of the | righteous:

“The right hand of the Lord has triumphed!*
the right hand of the Lord is exalted!
the right hand of the Lord has triumphed!”

I shall not | die, but | live,*
and de|clare the | works of the | Lord.

The Lord has punished me sorely,*
but he did not hand me over to death.

Open for me the | gates of | righteousness;*
I will enter them;
I will | offer | thanks to the | Lord.

“This is the gate of the Lord;*
he who is righteous may enter.”

I will give thanks to you, | for you | answered me*
and have be|come | my sal|vation.

The same stone which the builders rejected* has become the chief cornerstone.

This is the | Lord’s | doing,*
and it is | marvelous | in our | eyes.

On this day the Lord has acted;*
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Second Lesson: 1 Corinthians 15:19-26

If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died. For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being; for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ. But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after he has destroyed every ruler and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

The Gospel: Luke 24:1-12

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On the first day of the week, at early dawn, the women who had come with Jesus from Galilee came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again." Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

Reader The Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you Lord Christ.

Sermon Fr. Alan Gibson

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People (Form III)

Intercessor Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;

People That we may all be one.

Intercessor Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;

People That your name may be glorified by all people.

Intercessor We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;

People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Intercessor We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;

People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Intercessor Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Intercessor Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Intercessor Give to the departed eternal rest;
People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Intercessor We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Intercessor Let us pray for our own needs and those of others. (Silence)

The celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

Please exchange a sign of peace with those around you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory Anthem: Worthy is the Lamb (The Messiah) Georg Frederic Handel (1685-1759)
 St. Andrew’s Adult Choir; University Student Chamber Orchestra

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, and hath redeemed us to God by his blood, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. Blessing, and honour, glory, and pow’r, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Eucharistic Prayer A

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

But chiefly are we bound to praise you for your glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus: Mass in C, KV 257..... W. A. Mozart
(The congregation is seated) Prayer Book, page 362

The Celebrant continues:

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

People Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

MUSIC AT COMMUNION

Voluntary: Alleluia Fanfare..... Fred Gramman (b.1950)
St. Dunstan Handbell Choir

Anthem: We Welcome Glad Easter arr. Michael Bedford (b.1949)
St. Andrew's Junior Choir (10:30 am only)

We welcome glad Easter when Jesus arose, and won a great victory over his foes. Then raise your glad voices, all Christians, and sing, bring glad Easter praises to Jesus, your King. We tell how the women came early that day, and there at the tomb found the stone rolled away. We sing of the angel, who said, "Do not fear! Your Savior is risen, and he is not here." We think of the promise which Jesus did give: "That he who believes in Me also shall live!" Then raise your glad voices, all Christians, and sing, bring glad Easter praises to Jesus, your King.

Hymn: The Strife is O'er Hymnal, no. 208

Anthem: I Know that my Redeemer Lives Kevin McChesney
St. Dunstan Handbell Choir

Hymn: The Day of Resurrection..... Hymnal, no. 210

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.
