

WELCOME TO SAINT ANDREW'S
Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith, you are welcome here.

Please fill out a welcome card, found in the pew rack, then put it in the offering plate or give it to one of the clergy following the service so that we can be in touch with you. For more information about St. Andrew's, speak to the volunteer at the Information Table in the Chapel lobby.

If you have a hearing aid equipped with telecoil capability, please note that the church sanctuary has been equipped with this technology.

THE EUCHARIST

The celebration of the Holy Eucharist is an act of joy and praise, which draws its principal meaning from the Easter proclamation of the resurrection. All who are drawn to God and seek Christ are welcome to receive communion.

Wafers will be used for the communion bread. Wine will not be offered. Communion will be distributed at the foot of the chancel steps for those wishing to partake. Ushers will direct you to form a single line down the center aisle as you approach the altar.

GIVE ONLINE!

Offering plates have been placed in the aisle to receive your offering as you come to communion or you can give online at: standrewsaa.weshareonline.org

CHILDREN

A Nursery for infants through toddler age is available during the 10:00 am service, located on the second floor of the Parish Hall. Children and youth in preschool through high school attend Church School from 9:45 am until they join their families during the Children's Entrance Hymn.

TODAY

The Episcopal Health Ministers will provide blood pressure screenings in the church office after both services.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory Anthem: Epiphany Carol Bruce Neswick (b.1956)
 St. Andrew's Adult Choir

Sing of God made manifest in a child robust and blest, to whose home in Bethlehem where a star had guided them, magi came and gifts unbound, signs mysterious and profound: myrrh and frankincense and gold grave and God and king foretold.

Sing of God made manifest when at Jordan John confessed, "I should be baptized by you, but your bidding I will do," then from heav'n a double sign dove-like Spirit, voice divine hailed the true Anointed One: "This is my beloved Son."

Sing of God made manifest when Christ came as wedding guest and at Cana gave a sign, turning water into wine; further still was love revealed as he taught, forgave, and healed, bringing light and life to all who would listen to God's call.

Sing of God made manifest on a cloud capped mountain's crest, where the Law and Prophets wanted so that Christ alone remained: glimpse of glory, pledge of grace, giv'n as Jesus set his face r'wards the waiting cross and grave, sign of hope that God, God would save.

Children's Entrance Hymn: Take Me to the Water LEVAS, no. 134

We will repeat this hymn for a month to better allow our Church School members to participate in the Children's Entrance Hymn.

*Music citations are for the 10:00 am service.
 The service customarily begins in silence and in prayer.*

MUSIC NOTES

Hymn 139: When Jesus went to Jordan’s Stream

This hymn celebrates Jesus’ baptism in an extensive study of its meaning and implications; indeed, Martin Luther based his text on his shorter catechism. F. Bland Tucker, a noted hymnist in the Episcopal Church, combined and condensed Luther’s seven German verses into three stanzas; it is remarkable that he fit the English text to the original German tune. Luther’s original hymn spread quickly after he wrote it in 1541: it was published in broadsheets, booklets, and hymnals in the next two years, and by 1543 was always paired with this strongly rhythmic music. -- Donna Wessel Walker

Annual Parish Meeting

Sunday, January 30 at 11:30 am

The Annual Parish meeting will be held in the Church on January 30, 2022 immediately following the conclusion of the 10:00 am service.

Services will be held as regularly scheduled. There is no livestream or Zoom available for this meeting.

So that all parishioners have an opportunity to vote that does not require attending a meeting with 100+ people in a room, new voting procedures will be introduced.

The annual meeting will be called to order at the conclusion of the 8:00 am service and the polls will open. Ballots will be available in the vestibule at the Memorial Garden entrance. Polls will remain open throughout the morning at a table staffed by members of the vestry. People not attending church services to avoid crowds may stop in to cast their votes in-between services, minimizing their contact with other people. At the conclusion of the 10:00 am service final ballots will be cast, and the business portion of the meeting will commence.

Those who are not comfortable entering the building may call or text Catherine Carver from the church parking lot at 202-222-8753, and a ballot will be brought to their car.

This satisfies the bylaw requirement for a physical ballot being cast at the annual meeting while giving parishioners more flexibility in how/when they vote. However, those who do not stay or return for the business meeting would not get an opportunity to vote in a second ballot if one is needed.

If you would like to have a report included in the Annual Report, please email communications@standrewsaa.org by Wednesday, January 12.

The Annual Report will be available on Wednesday, January 26 at: standrewsaa.org/publications.html.
