ABOUT MAUNDY THURSDAY

“On the night before he was betrayed,” Thursday in Holy Week, Jesus instituted the Eucharist at his last supper with his disciples. The Gospel of John says that, on that occasion just before his crucifixion, Jesus emphasized his role as God’s servant by washing the disciples’ feet, a task usually reserved for slaves in that world of dusty roads and sandaled feet. As he did that, he said, “I give you a new commandment: Love one another as I have loved you.” In Latin “a new commandment” is mandatum novum - hence, “Maundy” Thursday.

In today’s Liturgy the Eucharist is preceded by a symbolic footwashing of members of the congregation by their leaders in remembrance of Christ’s self-sacrificing love. At the conclusion of the service the altar and sanctuary are stripped of adornments, and remain that way through Good Friday until the Great Vigil on Easter.

INVITATION

The Chapel will be open for prayer and meditation until 10:00 pm tonight, and will re-open at 8:00 am Friday until noon.

Peace is My Last Gift to You..... Craig Phillips (b. 1962)
 St. Andrew’s Adult Choir

Peace is my last gift to you, my peace I leave with you; peace which the world cannot give, I give to you. I give you a new commandment: Love one another as I have loved you.

Peace, by this shall the world know that you are my disciples: that you have love for one another. Peace, if I then, the Lord and Master, have washed your feet, you too should wash each others’ feet.

Peace, for I have given you an example, oh, that you should do as I have done to you. Peace, I have told you this so that my own joy may be in you and your joy may be complete.

Peace, one can have no greater love than to lay down his life for his friends. Peace, I call you friends, because I have made known to you every thing I have learned from my Father.

Peace, you are sad now, but I shall see you again, and your hearts will be full of joy. Peace, in the world you will have trouble.

But be brave: I have overcome the world. Oh, peace is my last gift to you, my peace I leave with you; peace which the world cannot give, I give to you.

Anthem:

In Dark Gethsemane ..... Trevor Manor (b. 1985)

St. Andrew's Junior Choir

Christ Jesus knew a garden fair where long hours He would stay. His followers would find Him there, His fav'rite place to pray. Upon a hushed and lonely hill, beneath the olive tree, the Savior learned His Father's will in dark Gethsemane.

Our God once made a garden fair for the first man and wife. The Father often met them there, where first He gave them life. But their rebellion cursed our race with sin's harsh penalty. And now breaks forth the dawn of grace in dark Gethsemane!

Dear God, I thank You for Your Son who showed His love for me by praying, "Lord, Your will be done," in dark Gethsemane.

As Jesus prayed, great drops of blood fell from His weary head, and falling, drenched earth's sin-dried sod while with His God He pled, "Dear Father, if it is Your will, remove death's cup from me." But all around was mute and still in dark Gethsemane.

Dear God, I thank You for Your Son who showed His love for me: who knelt and prayed, "Your will be done," then walked to Calvary.
