9:40 AM Prelude • 10:00 AM Holy Eucharist

Prelude: Clair de Lune (Pièces de Fantaisie, Op. 53, no. 5).....Louis Vierne (1870-1937)

Choral no. 3 en la mineur.....César Franck (1822-1890)

The Word of God

Processional Hymn: Come, O Come Our Voices Raise Hymnal, no. 430

Opening Acclamation Book of Common Prayer, pg. 355

Gloria.....Hymnal, no. S-278

FIRST LESSON: Habakkuk 1:1-4; 2:1-4

The oracle that the prophet Habakkuk saw. O Lord, how long shall I cry for help, and you will not listen? Or cry to you “Violence!” and you will not save? Why do you make me see wrong-doing and look at trouble? Destruction and violence are before me; strife and contention arise. So the law becomes slack and justice never prevails. The wicked surround the righteous— therefore judgment comes forth perverted.

I will stand at my watchpost, and station myself on the rampart; I will keep watch to see what he will say to me, and what he will answer concerning my complaint. Then the Lord answered me and said: Write the vision; make it plain on tablets, so that a runner may read it. For there is still a vision for the appointed time; it speaks of the end, and does not lie. If it seems to tarry, wait for it; it will surely come, it will not delay. Look at the proud! Their spirit is not right in them, but the righteous live by their faith.

PSALM 37:1-10

CHOIR Do not fret yourself because of evil doers; *
do not be jealous of those who do wrong.

ALL For they shall soon wither like the grass, *
and like the green grass fade away.

CHOIR Put your trust in the LORD and do good; *
dwell in the land and feed on its riches.

ALL Take delight in the LORD, *
and he shall give you your heart's desire.

CHOIR Commit your way to the LORD and put your trust in him, *
and he will bring it to pass.

ALL He will make your righteousness as clear as the light * and your just dealing as the noonday.

CHOIR Be still before the LORD * and wait patiently for him.

ALL Do not fret yourself over the one who prospers, *
the one who succeeds in evil schemes.

CHOIR Refrain from anger, leave rage alone; *
do not fret yourself; it leads only to evil.

ALL For evildoers shall be cut off, *
but those who wait upon the LORD shall possess the land.

SECOND LESSON: Timothy 1:1-14

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus our hope, To Timothy, my loyal child in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. I urge you, as I did when I was on my way to Macedonia, to remain in Ephesus so that you may instruct certain people not to teach any different doctrine, and not to occupy themselves with myths and endless genealogies that promote speculations rather than the divine training that is known by faith.

But the aim of such instruction is love that comes from a pure heart, a good conscience, and sincere faith. Some people have deviated from these and turned to meaningless talk, desiring to be teachers of the law, without understanding either what they are saying or the things about which they make assertions. Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it legitimately. This means understanding that the law is laid down not for the innocent but for the lawless and disobedient, for the godless and sinful, for the unholy and profane, for those who kill their father or mother, for murderers, fornicators, sodomites, slave traders, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to the sound teaching that conforms to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which he entrusted to me.

I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because he judged me faithful and appointed me to his service, even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a man of violence. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

Sequence Hymn: O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee Hymnal, no. 659

GOSPEL: Luke 17:5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!" The Lord replied, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. "Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here at once and take your place at the table'? Would you not rather say to him, 'Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink'? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, 'We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!'"

Versicles and Responses

Celebrant All things come from you, O Lord
People And from your own gifts do we give to you.

Celebrant Prosper the work of our hands;
People Prosper our handiwork.

Celebrant Show your servants your works
People And your splendor to their children.

Collect

Celebrant Almighty God, we thank you that you have put it into the hearts of your people to make offerings for your service, and have been pleased to accept their gifts. Be with us now and bless us as we set apart this organ to your praise and glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

Litany

Celebrant For the gift of music: for melodies that echo the harmonies of heaven, for voices transcending time and space, united in the glory of your name:

People We give you thanks, O Lord.

Celebrant For instruments of praise: for trumpet, lute and harp, for strings and pipes, drum and bells, for loud crashing cymbals.

People We give you thanks, O Lord.

Celebrant For the sounds of Worship: for words spoken, sung, and chanted, for prayers voiced twice in song, for silence to hear your still, small voice:

People We give you thanks, O Lord.

Celebrant For those who build and play the instruments of praise: for metal hammered into pipes, for wood that channels breath, for bellows brimmed with willing air, for feet that tread out melody and hands that dance, keyed to the music of the spheres:

People We give you thanks, O Lord.

Celebrant To the glory of almighty God, author of all goodness and beauty, giver of all skill of mind and hand:

People We dedicate this organ.

Celebrant In the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, who calls us to offer for his love's sake our pure sacrifice of praise:

People We dedicate this organ.

Celebrant Moved by the Holy Spirit, our guide in all truth and beauty:
People We dedicate this organ.

Celebrant Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might be to our God forever and ever.
People Amen.

Collect

Celebrant O Lord, before whose throne trumpets sound, and saints and angels sing the songs of Moses and the Lamb: accept this organ for the worship of your temple, that with the voice of music we may proclaim your praise and tell it abroad, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
People Amen.

Offertory Anthem: When Justice Awakes Pamela Ruiter-Feenstra (b. 1961)

The St. Andrew's Adult and Junior Choirs

Commissioned by St. Andrew's in honor of the Dedication of Richards, Fowkes & Co. Opus 25

When someone is suff'ring, God's world is bent. When someone is suff'ring, we sing songs of lament. Kyrie eleison.	Then let the earth ring out! And let the people shout! Let no one be turned out! Let no one be without!	When one is reviled— they too, are God's own child—, we sing Kyrie eleison, we sing Christe eleison, we sing of the child. Christe eleison.
When one has no food to eat, love's incomplete. When one has no food to eat, we sing songs of depletion. Kyrie eleison.	Then let the bells all ring! And let the people sing! Justice in everything, to all be welcoming.	Then let the pipes all play! And let the dancers sway! And may the people pray for equity each day.
When one becomes exiled, God's world unreconciled, we sing of the mother, we sing of the child. Christe eleison.	When one becomes homeless, God's world is spent. When one becomes homeless, we sing songs of torment. Kyrie eleison.	Then let the trumpets blast, and voices be amassed. No one will be outcast. God's love remains steadfast.
How long? When justice awakes God's planet earth shakes we sing Gloria. We sing Alleluia!	When one is mistreated, love's incomplete. When one is mistreated, we sing songs of deceit. Kyrie eleison.	Let choirs and organs join to sing when justice awakes!

The St. Andrew's Adult Choir

If anyone has the world's goods, and sees his neighbor in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Let us not love in word or speech, but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth: we have confidence before our God, and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments, and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we should believe in his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another.

Please join St. Andrew's for the blessing and dedication of our new Richards, Fowkes & Co. organ today! Following a 9:40 am prelude, the organ, Opus 25, will be blessed as part of the 10:00 am service featuring a new choral anthem commissioned by St. Andrew's for the event. A dedicatory recital will be performed at 4:00 pm by Aaron Tan, international prize-winning organist.

Announcements

Walkabout Happenings: Please sponsor our St. Andrew's Youth Group Team as they raise funds for our community! Donate at the links provided or check out our information table on the front lawn at the 10:00 am service today. Thank you for your prayers and support!

48th Ann Arbor CROP Walk: Sunday, October 9 at 2:00 pm at Zion Lutheran. A wonderful family event to participate in, CROP Walk helps the hungry both globally and locally - including the Breakfast at St. Andrew's: <https://events.crophungerwalk.org/2022/team/st-andrews-youth-group>

Blessing of the Animals: In honor of St. Francis of Assisi, our annual Blessing of the Animals will take place Sunday, October 9 at 4:00 pm on the lawn (weather permitting). All animals (or photos or stuffed toys) are welcome!

There will be a special parish-wide meeting on Sunday, October 16 following the 10:00 am service where the Search Committee and representatives from the Diocese will give a presentation to summarize the results of the CAT, with a Q&A session afterwards.

Millennials + Z Gathering: Join us Sunday, October 23 at 9:45 am, in the Children's Play Yard of the church (located next to the Parish Hall wing of the building, near Lawrence St.). We would love for the families from the 9:15 to join, and those who attend the 10:00 to pop over before the service and say hi! All of our gatherings are family-friendly, kid-friendly, and all are welcome. This will be a casual coffee hour style potluck. RSVP to Bill Bryan (williamabryan@gmail.com).

The Michigan Visiting Nurses will offer flu shots on Sunday, October 23, in the Lounge, from 8:30 to 11:00 am. No appointment is required. Insurances are accepted with no co-pay required. Self-pay? The cost is $40 ($54 for the "high dose"), cash, check and credit cards accepted. At the same time, the Episcopal Health Ministers are also sponsoring a Drug Dump. More information is available in the Network.

Music Notes

Let Us Love In Deed and Truth (King)

Larry King was Organist and Director of Music at Trinity Church, Wall Street, in New York City from 1968 to 1989. Trinity has one of the finest professional choirs in the country. Larry, though, chose to delegate the directorship of this world-class ensemble to his associate in 1977 so that he could devote himself to conducting Trinity's volunteer family choir. He wrote this setting of 1 John 3:17-23, with its tender message to love one another, for it. -- Dennis Powers
