WELCOME TO SAINT ANDREW'S

Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith, you are welcome here.

 If you have a hearing aid that is equipped with telecoil capability, please note that the church sanctuary has been equipped with this technology.

For more information about St. Andrew's, visit standrewsaa.org.

We are delighted to welcome you for worship this Christmas! As a courtesy to others, please turn off or silence your cellphones. If you are visiting this evening, we hope you will fill out a Welcome Card (found in the back of the pew in front of you) and put it in the offering plate or hand it to the usher, giving us a chance to get to know you a little better.

We welcome children of all ages at worship, and we hope you will help them follow along in the service as best they can. If your younger ones are restless during the service, there are Children's Busy Bags at the back of the church with fun games and activities. Please return the Busy Bags after the service so others may enjoy them as well.

Please join us for worship on Sundays: 8:00 am Spoken Eucharist in the sanctuary, 9:15 am Family Service in the Chapel, and 10:00 am Sung Eucharist in the sanctuary (this service is also livestreamed on YouTube). We have Sunday School for all ages every Sunday, from September to June, starting at 9:45 am.

Ushers will receive your offering during the Offertory or you can give online via Realm eGiving using the QR code.

3. There is no Rose

There is no rose of such vertu as is the rose hat bare Jesu. Alleluia. For in this rose containèd was Heaven and earth in litel space, res miranda. By that rose we may well see there be one God in persons three, pares forma. The aungels sungen the shepherds to: Gloria in excelsis Deo. Gaudeamus. Leave we all this werldly mirth, and follow we this joyful birth. Transeamus. Alleluia, res miranda, pares forma, gaudeamus, transeamus.

4. That Yongë Child

That yongë child when it gan weep with song she lulled him asleep: that was so sweet a melody it passèd alle minstrelsy. The nightingalë sang also: her song is hoarse and nought thereto: whoso attendeth to her song and leaveth the first then doth he wrong.

5. Balulalow

O my deare hert, young Jesu sweit, prepare thy creddil in my spreit, and I sall rock thee to my hert, and never mair from thee depart. But I sall praise thee evermoir with sanges sweit unto thy gloir; the knees of my hert sall I bow, and sing that richt Balulalow.

6. As Dew in Aprille

I sing of a maiden that is makèles: King of all kings to her son she ches. He came also stille there his moder was as dew in Aprille that falleth on the grass. He came also stille to his moder's bour as dew in Aprille that falleth on the flour. He came also stille there his moder lay as dew in Aprille that falleth on the spray. Moder and maiden was never none but she: well may such a lady Goddes moder be.

7. This Little Babe

This little Babe so few days old, is come to rife Satan's fold; all hell doth at his presence quake, though he himself for cold do shake; for in this weak unarmed wise the gates of hell he will surprise. With tears he fights and wins the field, His naked breast stands for a shield, His battering shot are babish cries, His arrows looks of weeping eyes, His martial ensigns Cold and Need, and feeble flesh his warrior's steed. His camp is pitched in a stall, His bulwark ut a broken wall; the crib his trench, haystalks his stakes; of shepherds he his muster makes; and thus, as sure his foe to wound, the angels' trumps alarum sound. My soul, with Christ join thou in fight; stick to the tents that he hath pight. Within his crib is surest ward; this little Babe will be thy guard. If thou wilt foil thy foes with joy, then flit not from this heavenly Boy.

8. Interlude

9. In Freezing Winter Night

Behold, a silly tender babe, in freezing winter night, in homely manger trembling lies. Alas, a piteous sight! The inns are full; no man will yield this little pilgrim bed. But forced he is with silly beasts in crib to shroud his head. This stable is a Prince's court, this crib his chair of State; the beasts are parcel of his pomp, the wooden dish his plate. The persons in that poor attire his royal liveries wear; the Prince himself is come from heaven; this pomp is prized there. With joy approach, O Christian wight, do homage to thy King, and highly praise his humble pomp, wich he from Heaven doth bring.

10. Spring Carol

Pleasure it is to hear iwis, the birdes sing, the deer in the dale, the sheep in the vale, the corn springing. God's purveyance for sustenance, it is for man, it is for man. Then we always to give him praise, and thank him than.

11. Deo Gracias

Deo gracias! Adam lay ibounden in a bond; four thousand winter thought he not to long. Deo gracias! And all was for an appil that he tok, as clerkes finden written in their book. Deo gracias! Ne had the appil takè ben, ne haddè never our lady a ben hevenè quene. Blessed be the time that appil takè was. Therefore we moun singen. Deo gracias!

12. Recession

Hodie Christus natus est: hodie Salvator apparuit: hodie in terra canunt angeli: laetantur archangeli: Hodie exultant justi dicentes: Gloria in excelsis Deo. Alleluia!

| 1 O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
come, and behold him, born the King of angels;
O come, let us adore him, O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord. 2 God from God, Light from Light eternal,
lo! he abhors not the Virgin's womb;
only begotten Son of the Father;
O come, let us adore him, O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord. 3 Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation, sing, all ye citizens of heaven above;

O come, let us adore him, O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord. | 4 See how the shepherds, summoned to his cradle,
leaving their flocks, draw nigh to gaze;
we too will thither bend our joyful footsteps;

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray. O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light:
Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting.
People Amen.

THE LESSONS

First Reading: Isaiah 9:2-7

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness-- on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

Second Reading: Titus 2:11-14

For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all, training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

Gospel: Luke 2:1-20

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see-- I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

"Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Sisters and brothers, on this holy night of Jesus’s birth, let us pray for ourselves and all those in need, that we may find peace, joy, and contentment in this holy season. Silence Almighty God, creator of our planet Earth, the heavens, and galaxies without number, we give thanks that you chose to come among us in human form. By way of Jesus, we have a deeper understanding of who you are and how you want us to live our lives. Help us to receive the gift of your presence and serve one another with generosity and gentleness.

People God of love, hear our prayer.

We pray for St. Andrew’s church, this congregation of prayer, support, and service, that we might bear the good news of God’s living presence in our world, always deepening our faith and living out that faith in love. God of love, hear our prayer.

We pray for those who labor in the night. We give thanks for the work of all caregivers, health care professionals, fire fighters, police officers, emergency dispatchers, and all who serve while we sleep. Let us never forget that our common life is built on each other’s toil. God of love, hear our prayer.

We pray for those lost in the darkness of prejudice, hostility, and fear; for those burdened by the yoke of injustice, terrorism, hunger, and war; and for all people in any need, that the light and life of Jesus might touch their hearts this night. God of love, hear our prayer.

We pray for people who are homeless and destitute, those in prison, and all who have none to care for them. We pray for those who are sick, the unemployed, and all who are lonely or anxious about what tomorrow may bring. Send your healing power through them, lift the yoke of their burden, and give them rest from their weariness. God of love, hear our prayer.

Lord, we pause to remember our family members and friends who have died and now dwell with you, including those in whose memory the flowers are given tonight. Silence Help us to cherish our bounty of memories and treasure each day of the lives that touched and enriched us. We pray that you will give eternal peace to those we love but see no longer. God of love, hear our prayer.

All loving and gracious God, we thank you for gracing us with the gift of your Son. Confident of your continuing love for us, we have placed our needs before you. Hear and answer our prayers, through that same Christ, newly born this night, our Lord and Savior, forever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory Anthem: Voluntary: The First Noel arr. Thomas Kuras (1950–1997)

String Ensemble; Jonathan Gardner, Tenor

The first Noel the angel did say was to certain poor shepherds in fields where they lay; in fields where they lay, keeping their sheep, on a cold winter's night that was so deep. Noel, born is the King of Israel. They looked up and saw a star shining in the east beyond them far, and to the earth it gave great light, and so it continued both day and night. Noel, born is the King of Israel.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Eucharistic Prayer B

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, hea - ven and earth are full, full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Celebrant

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

People Amen.

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

The Lord's Prayer (Contemporary)

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Fraction Anthem

Je - sus, Lamb of God: have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus, bear - er of our sins: have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus, re - deem - er, re - deem - er of the world:

give us your peace, give us your peace.

Please come forward and stand or kneel at the rail. The priest will place the bread in your outstretched palm (consecrated rice wafers are available for those with wheat allergies - simply ask the priest). You may dip the bread in the wine in the small cup held by the Eucharistic minister.

Please know that Christ is fully present in both the bread and the wine - there is no requirement to receive both. If you do not wish to receive communion, you may come forward, cross your hands over your chest, and receive a blessing.
