Prelude: Lord! Come Away! (Four Hymns for Tenor and Viola)

Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

Jonathan Gardner, Tenor; Madeline Warner, Viola

Lord! come away! Why dost Thou stay? Thy road is ready; and Thy paths, made straight with longing expectation, wait. The consecration of Thy beauteous feet! Ride on triumphantly! Behold we lay our lusts and proud wills in Thy way! Hosanna! Welcome to our hearts! Lord, here Thou hast a temple too; and full as dear as that of Sion, and as full of sin: Nothing but thieves and robbers dwell therein; enter, and chase them forth, and cleanse the floor! Crucify them, that they may never more profane that holy place where Thou hast chose to set Thy face! And then, if our stiff tongues shall be mute in the praises of Thy Deity, the stones out of the temple wall shall cry aloud and call "Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna", and Thy glorious footsteps greet!

Processional Antiphon, Hymn 157: Hosanna in the Highest

Repeat after Cantor and after each verse

Antiphon (at the beginning)

Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

THE LITURGY OF THE PALMS

Celebrant Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord.

People Peace in heaven and glory in the highest.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Assist us mercifully with your help, O Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts, whereby you have given us life and immortality; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Lesson: Luke 19:28-40

After telling a parable to the crowd at Jericho, Jesus went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it.'" So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?" They said, "The Lord needs it." Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying,

"Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!"

Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, order your disciples to stop." He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out."

Reader The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right to praise you, Almighty God, for the acts of love by which you have redeemed us through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. On this day he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph, and was proclaimed as King of kings by those who spread their garments and branches of palm along his way. Please raise your palm branches.

Let these branches be for us signs of his victory, and grant that we who bear them in his name may ever hail him as our King, and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life; who lives and reigns in glory with you and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord.

People Hosanna in the highest.

Processional Hymn 154: All Glory, Laud, and Honor

THE WORD OF GOD

Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, in your tender love for the human race you sent your Son our Savior Jesus Christ to take upon him our nature, and to suffer death upon the cross, giving us the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant that we may walk in the way of his suffering, and also share in his resurrection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lesson: Philippians 2:5-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness.

And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death— even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

People Thanks be to God.

The Prayers of the People

Please stand or kneel

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God. Silence O God, your Son endured triumphs and terrors in his return to Jerusalem. Give endurance to your people this holy week, and help us to enter into the account of Jesus's last days.

People Hear us, O God, for your mercy is great.

We give thanks to you for all those who walk this life with us, especially those closest to our hearts. Strengthen the bonds of our affection and turn our hearts to one another in compassion and grace. Be with those who struggle with loneliness; fill them with the knowledge of your care, and help us to be agents of your love to them. Hear us, O God, for your mercy is great.

O God, you have filled the world with beauty. We thank you for the sun, the greening grass, and the flowering forsythia. Open our eyes to behold the beauty of your creation in this and every season and help us to be good stewards of the earth. Hear us, O God, for your mercy is great.

Almighty God, guide the nations of the world in the way of justice and truth, and establish among us that peace which passes all understanding. We pray that your holy and life-giving Spirit may so move every human heart, that barriers which divide us may crumble, suspicions disappear, and hatreds cease; that our divisions being healed, we may live in justice and peace. Hear us, O God, for your mercy is great.

God of peace and justice, we pray for all involved in the conflict in the Middle East, Ukraine, and all those in war-torn countries. Provide safe havens for civilians and refugees, sustain those working to provide relief, and comfort those who mourn the dead. Guide the global community on the path to end the conflict and violence. Gather all your people under the banner of the Prince of Peace. Hear us, O God, for your mercy is great.

We pray for those who are sick or sorrowing, including those on our prayer list, and all whose struggles are known to you alone. Pause Bless them with your presence, comfort, and healing power, and help us to do what we can to turn their sorrow into joy. Hear us, O God, for your mercy is great.

We give you thanks for those we love but see no longer, remembering especially Jennifer Van Wagenen, in whose memory the flowers are given today. Silence May they have rest and peace in your presence. Hear us, O God, for your mercy is great.

O God, we acknowledge that you are the God of all people, the God of all generations. We gratefully acknowledge the love that you have shown to us by way of Jesus Christ and the presence of the Holy Spirit. We thank you for our lives, which are in your hands; for our souls, which are in your keeping; and for the signs of your presence we encounter every day. Amen.
