Welcome to St. Andrew's

The Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost

10:00 AM Holy Eucharist • October 19, 2025

Thank you for joining us for worship today!

Please fill out a welcome card, found in the pew rack, then put it in the offering plate or give it to one of the clergy following the service so that we can be in touch with you. For more information about St. Andrew's please visit our website at standrewsaa.org.

If you have a hearing aid equipped with telecoil capability, please note that the church sanctuary has been equipped with this technology.

As a courtesy to others, please turn off or silence your cellphone during the service.

THE WORD OF GOD

HYMN

Praise to the living God!

#372, The Hymnal 1982 (Blue Book)

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

All Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray. Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

THE FIRST LESSON Genesis 32:22-31

The same night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed." Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." The sun rose upon him as he passed Peniel, limping because of his hip.

THE SECOND LESSON 2 Timothy 3:14-4:5

As for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favorable or unfavorable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

THE GOSPEL Luke 18:1-8

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus told his disciples a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my opponent.' For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, 'Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.'" And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

THE SERMON

The Rev. Paul Frolick

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE Please stand or kneel.

People Trusting in the God who neither slumbers nor sleeps, let us pray for the Church, the world, and all in need. A brief silence Every day we stand in the shade of trees we did not plant. We live in houses we did not build. We eat food we did not produce. We ponder ideas that are not original to us. So too, we live in a body with a mind and a spirit that we did not choose or create. O God, let us never take for granted the many blessings you have freely bestowed upon us. God of steadfast love, hear our prayer.

Strengthen your Church, O God, to persevere in faith and to pray without ceasing. Give wisdom and courage to bishops, clergy, and all who serve your people. Make us bold in proclaiming your Word and constant in compassion. God of steadfast love, hear our prayer.

God our judge, we ask your blessing on the judicial system and we pray for courts, lawyers, juries, and judges. We remember all who seek to keep law and order. We pray for those suffering from injustice or a lack of freedom. God of steadfast love, hear our prayer.

Gracious God, we give you thanks for the generosity of those whose gifts to the Memorial Fund have made possible our new All Saints' Playground. Bless this place of joy and laughter, and all the children who will play there. May it be a sign of your kingdom in our midst—where delight, friendship, and love are shared freely. God of steadfast love, hear our prayer.

God of all nations, your justice stands firm when human power falters. Awaken in the hearts of rulers and citizens alike a hunger for what is right and true. Where nations are divided, sow understanding; where people are hardened by fear or greed, plant seeds of mercy and cooperation. May the powerful be humbled, the weary strengthened, and your peace take root where war has reigned too long. God of steadfast love, hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit, including those on our prayer list, those we hold in our hearts, and all whose struggles are known to you alone. Pause Give them courage and hope in their troubles and bring them the joy of your salvation. God of steadfast love, hear our prayer.

We pray for all those we love but see no longer, remembering especially David Baldwin, in whose memory the flowers are given this week. Silence Give to the departed eternal rest. Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Faithful God, you have promised to keep your people from all evil and to guard our going out and our coming in. Hear the prayers we offer this day, and make us steadfast in faith, patient in prayer, and persistent in love, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor. Silence
People Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

Agnus Dei (Requiem)

The St. Andrew's Adult Choir

John Rutter (b. 1945)

Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world, grant them rest. Man that is born of a woman hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery. He cometh up, and is cut down like a flower; he fleeth as it were a shadow. In the midst of life, we are in death; of whom may we seek for succour? I am the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord; He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your Name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,

and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,

and the glory are yours,

now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

A period of silence is kept.

Please come forward and stand or kneel at the rail. The priest will place the bread in your outstretched palm (Consecrated rice wafers are available for those with wheat allergies - simply ask the priest). You may dip (intinct) the bread in the wine in the small cup held by the first Eucharistic minister, or drink from the large chalice held by the second Eucharistic minister.

Please know that Christ is fully present in both the bread and the wine - there is no requirement to receive both. If you do not wish to receive communion, you may come forward, cross your hands over your chest, and receive a blessing.

TODAY AT ST. ANDREW'S

Flu Shots: Today from 8:30-11:00 am in the Lounge. Get your flu shot at church - no appointment necessary! Two vaccines will be offered. The "regular" vaccine is for anyone age 9 to 64 (9-17 year olds are required to have parent or guardian present). The "high-dose" vaccine also has four influenza strains, all with a higher antigen dose; this will be given to adults age 65 and above. BC/BS, Aetna, Cigna and Medicaid/MI-Child; Medicare, Blue Care Network, Priority Health, and HAP are accepted with no co-pay required. Self-pay? The cost is $45.20 for the regular vaccine and $71.20 for the "high dose" (check and credit cards accepted; no cash). EHM will sponsor a collection of expired and unwanted medications during the vaccine program, in the Chapel Lobby.

Young Adults and Young Families Meetup: Please join us in the play yard after the 10:00 am service today! To learn more about this group and be notified of future events, contact Bill Bryan at williamabryan@gmail.com.

Outreach and Social Justice Meeting: Today at 11:15 am in the Chapel. Don't miss this meeting as we discuss plans for the fall! We will have short presentations about International Samaritan, and Habitat for Humanity and volunteering for the build or the ReStore. For more information, contact Merilynne Rush at msh.rush@gmail.com.

Choral Evensong: Today at 4:00 pm in the Church. Don't miss the start of our "Choral Sundays" series! Sung by the St. Andrew's Early Music Ensemble and Compline Choir, this service features Thomas Weelkes' Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis, Richard Ayleward's Preces and Responses, and Henry Loosemore's O Lord, Increase Our Faith.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Centering Prayer & Psalms: Please join Paul on Wednesday mornings at 10:00 am in the Chapel. We will spend about twenty minutes in silence, read and reflect on a psalm together, and then return to silence. If you are unable to join us in person in the Chapel, you can join us on Zoom (Meeting ID: 881 1661 6360 Passcode: 508660), or sit in silence at home. On Wednesday, October 22, we'll read and reflect on Psalm 84:1-6, found on page 707 in the Book of Common Prayer. All are welcome.

St. Andrew's Gets Outside Walking Group: You're invited to take a walk with us! We walk every Friday at 8:15 am. Come and meet us at the south entrance of County Farm Park. If you want to leave after one lap around the park, you can still make it to work downtown by 9:00 am! If you want to keep going, we usually finish by 9:30 am. We are flexible, talkative, happy and manage to get in our steps for the day!

Caregivers' Luncheon: An open invitation is extended to parishioners who may be giving care to a loved one. We'll meet for an hour on Tuesday, October 21 at noon in the Lounge for lunch, reflection, and mutual encouragement. For more information, or to make a reservation for lunch, please contact Fr. Paul at pfrolick@standrewsaa.org or 585-241-9317.

Commemoration of the Faithful Departed: At all the weekday celebrations of the Holy Eucharist during the month of November, prayers will be offered for our departed loved ones. If you would like to have someone remembered at one of these services, please send their names to Fr. Paul at pfrolick@standrewsaa.org

Music for Meditation: Music for All Souls

Come early! Compline will be sung at 6:30 pm by the St. Andrew's Early Music Ensemble and Compline Choir.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Division Street Pipes at St. Andrew's! Thursdays at 12:15 pm in the Church, through December 4. Each recital will feature talented students and faculty of the U-M Organ Department. These 30-minute performances are free and open to the public.

Join us this Thursday, October 23, for a performance by Nicholas Welch. Nicholas Welch returns to Division Street Pipes now as a first-year Master's student at the University of Michigan. Outside of his studies, he works as the music director and organist at St John Fischer University Parish in Auburn Hills. Come out to support him and to hear lovely and quirky pieces by Welsh, Belgian and French composers including William Mathias, Joseph Jorgen, and Cesar Franck. Franck's Chorale in A Minor is a particularly spectacular work that takes the listener on a turbulent voyage.

MUSIC NOTES

Hymn 535: Ye Servants of God

You might expect this triumphant celebration of God's rule and glorious victories to be the expression of heartfelt thanksgiving for some great deliverance. But Charles Wesley wrote this rousing hymn when he and his brother John were being attacked as traitors and radicals, and were forbidden to preach in churches. This hymn was first published in their Hymns for Times of Trouble and Persecution, the first song in a section of "Hymns to be sung in a tumult," in 1744. The sprightly tune was popular in the 18th century, but was not paired with this text until Hymnal 1982.

-- Donna Wessel Walker

Missa Brevis: Gloria

This morning's anthem by John Rutter (b. 1945), is Movement V of his Requiem. The choir previously sang Movement II, a setting of Psalm 130, and Movement VI, a setting of Psalm 23, three weeks and five weeks ago respectively. Rutter's Requiem, like Britten's War Requiem and Brahms' German Requiem, uses texts in addition to those of the Roman Catholic Missa Pro Defunctis; in addition to Psalms 130 and 23, the ones interwoven here are fragments of the burial service from the 1662 Book of Common Prayer. The piece as a whole is reminiscent of Gabriel Faure's Requiem in terms of the simplicity, brevity and choral richness of its writing. -- Dennis Powers
