THE WORD OF GOD

HYMN

The God of Abraham praise

#401, The Hymnal 1982 (Blue Book)

Celebrant	Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People	And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Celebrant	There is one Body and one Spirit;
People	There is one hope in God's call to us;
Celebrant	One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;
People	One God and Father of all.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant	The Lord be with you.
People	And also with you.
Celebrant	Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life: Grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

✠ Stephen Bates for building the cornerstone.

Today we are celebrating the Scottish heritage of the American Episcopal Church as well as the heritage and ministry of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Ann Arbor. When we enter the doors of St. Andrew's for worship we join the work started 198 years ago by a small group of Episcopalians led by the Rev. Richard F. Cadle of St. Paul's, Detroit.

NOTES

The presentation of Our Scottish ConneXion gives us an opportunity to reflect on the courage of our Christian ancestors and the founders of this church, as well as St. Andrew, St. Ninian, St. Margaret, and Samuel Seabury.

St. Andrew, one of the very first to follow Jesus, was martyred on a saltire (X-shaped) cross. Three hundred years later, his relics were brought to Scotland. By the mid-tenth century he was recognized as the Patron Saint of Scotland. His feast is celebrated on November 30.

St. Ninian, an early Roman Christian of the fourth century, became the first Bishop of Scotland and introduced the Christian faith to Scotland. Ninian was also known for his ability to cure illness and perform miracles. His feast is celebrated on September 16.

St. Margaret, who was the Queen of Scotland, is another of Scotland's Patron Saints. During her life she was known for her charitable works, personal holiness and fidelity to the Church, and work for religious reform. Her feast is celebrated on November 16.

Samuel Seabury was the first American Episcopal bishop and the second Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, USA. When the London-based Anglican Church refused to consecrate Seabury, he then turned to the Scottish Church, which granted his request. The Feast of the Consecration of Samuel Seabury is celebrated on November 14.

When we process into the world at the end of today's service, we will carry with us the examples of passion, courage, and dedication set by St. Andrew, St. Ninian, St. Margaret, and Samuel Seabury, and the early members of our own St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

BAPTISM OF ELEANORA ANNE WEINERT

Celebrant The Candidate for Holy Baptism will now be presented.

Parents and Godparents I present Eleanora to receive the sacrament of Baptism.

Celebrant Will you be responsible for seeing that the child you present is brought up in the Christian faith and life? I will, with God's help.

Will you by your prayers and witness help this child to grow into the full stature of Christ? I will, with God's help.

Do you renounce Satan and all the spiritual forces of wickedness that rebel against God? I renounce them.

Do you renounce the evil powers of this world which corrupt and destroy the creatures of God? I renounce them.

Do you renounce all sinful desires that draw you from the love of God?
I renounce them.

Do you turn to Jesus Christ and accept him as your Savior? I do.

Do you put your whole trust in his grace and love? I do.

Do you promise to follow and obey him as your Lord? I do.

Celebrant Will you who witness these vows do all in your power to support this person in her life in Christ?

People We will.

Celebrant Let us join with those who are committing themselves to Christ and renew our own baptismal covenant. Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?
People I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?
People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord? I will, with God's help.

Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?
I will, with God's help.

Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?
I will, with God's help.

Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being? I will, with God's help.

PRAYERS FOR THE CANDIDATE

Celebrant Let us now pray for Eleanora who is to receive the Sacrament of new birth.

Leader Deliver her, O Lord, from the way of sin and death.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

Open her heart to your grace and truth. Lord, hear our prayer.

Fill her with your holy and life-giving Spirit. Lord, hear our prayer.

Keep her in the faith and communion of your holy Church. Lord, hear our prayer.

Teach her to love others in the power of the Spirit. Lord, hear our prayer.

Send her into the world in witness to your love. Lord, hear our prayer.

Bring her to the fullness of your peace and glory. Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant Grant, O Lord, that all who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ your Son may live in the power of his resurrection and look for him to come again in glory; who lives and reigns now and for ever. Amen.

THANKSGIVING OVER THE WATER

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

You are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever. Amen.

Let us pray. Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon this your servant the forgiveness of sin, and have raised her to the new life of grace. Sustain her, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give her an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works.
Amen.

People Let us welcome the newly baptized.
We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

THE PEACE

Celebrant People

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Lo, round the throne a glorious band

The St. Andrew's Adult Choir
Henry G. Ley (1887-1962)

Lo, round the throne, a glorious band, the saints in countless myriads stand, of every tongue redeemed of God, arrayed in garments wash'd in blood. Hallelujah!

Through tribulations great they came: they bore the cross, despised the shame: from all their labors now they rest, in God's eternal glory blest. Hallelujah!

They see their Saviour face to face, and sing the triumphs of his grace: Him day and night they ceaseless praise, to him the loud thanksgiving rise: Hallelujah!

Worthy the Lamb, for sinners slain, through endless years to live and reign: Thou hast redeemed us by thy Blood, and made us kings and priests to God. Hallelujah!

O may we tread the sacred road that saints and holy martyrs trod: Wage to the end the glorious strife, and win like them a crown of life. Hallelujah! Amen.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your Name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,

and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,

and the glory are yours,

now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

A period of silence is kept.

Please come forward and stand or kneel at the rail. The priest will place the bread in your outstretched palm (Consecrated rice wafers are available for those with wheat allergies - simply ask the priest). You may dip (intinct) the bread in the wine in the small cup held by the first Eucharistic minister, or drink from the large chalice held by the second Eucharistic minister.

Please know that Christ is fully present in both the bread and the wine - there is no requirement to receive both. If you do not wish to receive communion, you may come forward, cross your hands over your chest, and receive a blessing.

Young Adults and Young Families Meetup: Meet us on the playground after the 10:00 am service! Come have donuts and enjoy our new play structure. To learn more about this group and be notified of future events, contact Bill Bryan at williamabryan@gmail.com.

Episcopal Health Ministry presents the Medical Decision Making Series event The ABC's of Aging Concerns: From Geriatric Syndromes to Downsizing today at 11:15 am in the Chapel. Don't miss this special presentation by Leslie Dubin, MSW. A clinical social worker for the University of Michigan Hospital's Geriatric Inpatient Consultation Team, Leslie works closely with patients and families faced with health and cognitive issues related to aging. If you or someone you love have questions or concerns about aging, be sure to join us for this important Medical Decision Making event!

UPCOMING EVENTS

Centering Prayer & Psalms: Please join Paul on Wednesday mornings at 10:00 am in the Chapel. We will spend about twenty minutes in silence, read and reflect on a psalm together, and then return to silence. If you are unable to join us in person in the Chapel, you can join us on Zoom (Meeting ID: 881 1661 6360 Passcode: 508660), or sit in silence at home. On Wednesday, November 12, we'll read and reflect on Psalm 98, found on page 727 in the Book of Common Prayer. All are welcome.

Reimagining Justice through Restorative Justice: Sunday, November 16, 11:15 am - 12:45 pm in the Parish Hall. The Restorative Justice approach to crime brings together the people who are directly impacted (perpetrator and victim) to identify harms, needs and obligations created by the offense. Restorative Justice seeks to heal and put things as right as possible by encouraging communication, seeing other viewpoints, and taking responsibility. Through presentation, discussion and role play, we will explore its use.

Caregivers' Luncheon: An open invitation is extended to parishioners who may be giving care to a loved one. We'll meet for an hour on Tuesday, November 18 at noon in the Lounge for lunch, reflection, and mutual encouragement. For more information, or to make a reservation for lunch, please contact Fr. Paul at pfrolick@standrewsaa.org or 585-241-9317.

Outreach and Social Justice Book Discussion: "Jesus Changes Everything" by Stanley Hauerwas on Tuesday, November 18 at 6:00 pm in the Chapel. "Jesus Changes Everything," is not just the book's title, but the Gospel Good News. Each of the short essays offer insights into some of our contemporary cultural challenges and how we can respond as followers of Jesus. Come ready to reflect, discuss, and grow!

Ordination to the Diaconate: Felicity Thompson will be ordained to the Diaconate on Saturday, November 22 at 11:00 am at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul (4800 Woodward Ave., Detroit).

First Meeting: Christmas Pageant • Saturday, November 22 at 11:00 am in the Chapel. Parts for all ages! Can't make the meeting but want to be in the pageant? Contact Norm Richert at nrichert@comcast.net.

New Member Welcome! We'd like to formally recognize and welcome new members to St. Andrew's during worship on Sunday, November 23. We are sending out invitations to people who are new here in the last six months or so, but we know our records are not complete. If you are new here (and would like to be formally recognized), please reach out to Fr. Paul at pfrolick@standrewsaa.org or 585-241-9317.

The Children's Christmas Store, where the children make or buy (for free) and wrap gifts for their families, will be December 7. If you have any donations of little items, good for any member of the family, please put them in a box outside the office.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Division Street Pipes at St. Andrew's! Thursdays at 12:15 pm in the Church, through December 4. Each recital will feature talented students and faculty of the U-M Organ Department. These 30-minute performances are free and open to the public.

Join us this Thursday, November 13, for a performance by Latimer Rogland. A junior studying organ with Professor Nicole Keller and pursuing a BMA in Organ Performance, Latimer won third place in the 2025 National Undergraduate Organ Competition. On Thursday, Latimer will present Praeludium in e by North German composer Nicolaus Bruhns, and Sonata No. 1 by Canadian composer Rachel Laurin.

Academy of Early Music Concert: Ground & Fire Saturday, November 15 at St. Andrew's. 6:45 pm talk, 7:30 pm concert. On the Fly: Variations & Improvisation • The art of improvising over a structured musical framework is an ancient one. By the early Baroque, this pairing of constancy and fantasy had evolved to include rich, often spectacularly virtuosic variations, some written down and some played ex tempore. Join recorder player Anne Timberlake and bass violin expert Jeremy Ward as they explore this exciting repertoire, bringing urgency and vitality to music by Van Eyck, Corelli and more. For more information or to purchase tickets, visit academyofearlymusic.org.

MUSIC NOTES

Hymn 413: New songs of Celebration

This is a paraphrase of Psalm 98, made in 1972 for an ecumenical hymnal of the World Council of Churches, Cantate Domino. It is a fresh and vivid rendering of praise to God from all of creation, in which we are privileged to join. Erik Routley, who wrote this dynamic version, was perhaps the most influential leader of the revival in hymn writing in the second half of the twentieth century, the "hymn explosion." Born and educated in England, Dr. Routley came to teach at Princeton Theological Seminary and the Westminster Choir College in 1975. The tune is, appropriately, from the Geneva Psalter. -- Donna Wessel Walker
