Volume 45, Issue 2

Dear friends:

Holy Week begins with a question, "Whom do you seek?" Jesus asks this question twice of the mob that seeks to do him harm. This question startles those that come to arrest him, but they soon regain their determination, seize Jesus and drag him off like a captured animal. What was thought to be impossible has happened: God has come into the hands of sinners.

Jesus, the Son of God, is dressed up by his captors and mocked as a king, which in reality, he is. The authorities play an elaborate and cowardly game of passing the buck. We hear lies and insults hurled at Jesus, and all we can do is be dismayed at the stupidity and blindness that keeps his accusers from the God who is there simply to love them.

"Whom do you seek?" As the ancient stories in the scriptures tell us, from the beginning, we, in one way or another, have been looking for God. All too often these efforts have been disastrous because we so easily make the mistake of running after gods that look safe and familiar, gods of our own devising. But none of those objects of our devotion have quite filled the emptiness that first caused us to search. The human race has been dying to get its hands on God, and by Good Friday it finally happened. Just look at the results.

It's tempting to simply react to the tragedy of the death of such a good man. We can rightly say, 'he did no wrong, he did not deserve to die.' But this temptation must be avoided, or we too will run the risk of missing what we seek. To see nothing but death is to be in danger of being just as blind as those who put Jesus on the cross. Jesus was a good man, who did no wrong, who did not deserve to die. But the brutal history of the world is littered with ill-fated, good people; and no one, no one, deserves to die. Jesus knows this better than anyone.

However, this is not just another good man dying. This is God's Son, who gives his own life so that the dying may finally cease. Jesus was not killed. Jesus freely gives his life for us. In the cross we see God seeking us as if our lives depended on it. God willingly falls into the hands of sinners so that we can be found by God's love.

On Easter morning, the resurrected Christ greets those who come to his tomb with a question, the same one we started with, "whom do you seek?" It's a question he continues to ask to this day, one on which our lives still depend.

God bless,

Fr. Alan

Church School Happenings

In the Classroom

During early spring preschool through intermediate classes reflect on the 40-day season of Lent in preparation for the celebration and the mystery of Easter. Stories are shared; on the “road to Jerusalem” with Jesus, the events of Holy Week, the glad news of the Resurrection, Jesus’ appearance to the disciples, Jesus invitation to follow, Ascension and finally God’s gift of the Holy Spirit.

The primary grades complete the year as they learn how the Church honors “saints” the special people in the Church’s history who have been courageous and outstanding witness to Christ. The intermediate grades final unit looks at the major events and history in the life of the Church; beliefs defined in the Creeds, worship in the established liturgical form, reformation, Anglican heritage, the Church in America and striving for Christian unity in a complex society.

Weave Your Way into the Lenten Prayer Loom

Visit the Chapel!

Come share as a Church family with a visual prayer representation in “the prayer loom.” Please visit the Chapel to create a weaving in the Prayer Loom “where prayer and story merge into a multi-sensory manifestation and powerful expression of prayer.” Colorful yarn skeins are available to weave around the nail heads and through everyone’s weavings. We hope you will be a part of this shared experience, as a faith community.

Palm Sunday Special Lesson: “Experiencing Holy Week”

Sunday, April 14 at 9:45 am, Chapel

A special combined lesson for all children preschool through J2A youth is planned for Palm Sunday. The Church School classes visit five different stations reflecting the events of Holy Week in the life of Jesus. The experiential stations and story are presented by the teachers in an exploration of Holy Week events: Hosanna-Jesus enters Jerusalem, Servant King-Jesus Washes the Disciples Feet, Remember Me-Last Supper, Alone-Garden of Gethsemane, Sharing our Sorrows-Crucifixion. The stories are presented in an age appropriate format as each respective classroom rotates through the stations. Children begin Palm Sunday lessons in the Chapel and join their families at the Children’s Entrance Hymn.

Holy Week Childcare

Childcare is provided during Holy Week. Look for communications from the main office, updates on the website, in the weekly bulletins and the Church School email announcements for specific dates and times.

Easter Egg Hunt

Sunday, April 21 9:45 -10:15 am

Families from all our worship services are invited to join in the fun as children search for candy filled eggs at our annual Easter Egg Hunt, hosted by our youth group. Meet in the chapel lobby at 9:45 am, weather permitting, the hunt will be on the front lawn with a special area for our wee ones!

Caring & Sharing

Easter Offering for Kalid: Each Lenten season the children are asked to save their coins, earned from being helpers around the house and doing good deeds, to support an Easter offering for our foster brother Kalid Nazif Abajehad of Ethiopia. Treasure boxes are available in the classrooms to decorate and collect coins - be sure to include your name! Please bring the boxes on Easter Sunday and place in the white cross outside the Chapel. Kalid celebrates his 14th birthday in May and we are sending him a photo and card with our best wishes.

Lent Service Project: Working with Director Morgan Battle, the Church School will collect nail clippers for the Breakfast guests during Lent. This fills a very specific need and current shortage. Please place nail clipper donations in the baskets outside the Morning Glories classroom and Library by Sunday, April 14.

Graduating Class of 2019 Senior High School Recognition:

Sunday, May 19 during the 10:00 am Holy Eucharist

It is once again the time of year that our graduating high school seniors enter a new chapter in their young lives. The experiences of our young adults in the youth program at St. Andrew's has hopefully created many shared memories as a part of the group experience. These memories are a part of the group story that becomes a measure of their own journey, carrying them through the years ahead. "Certainly, our Gospels were written out of this remembering, out of a dialogue rooted in what I remember, what you remember, what we remember together. As young people are honored in their memories, they build a gospel of their own. They begin to write the story that will sustain them into old age. God willing, the Church – and the work of God's Spirit in the context of the Church – will sit right in the center of their common memories. That memory becomes the foundation for all the work yet to come." ©Journey to Adulthood Leader Resources

We hope we helped you build a foundation, "a foundation on which a magnificent house can be built – a house fit for the Lord Jesus to dwell in." Most of all we hope you take your place in God's work, grounded in your faith and expression of personal beliefs, knowing, who you are and who God created you to be. You will always be in our prayers. Please join us Sunday, May 19 at the 10:00 am Holy Eucharist as we recognize the graduating class of 2019: Thomas Brantmeyer, George Dering, Noah Gardner, Emma Helmich, Bola Kolawole, Nico McCurrach, Anna Scott, Jessica Skaff, Olivia Tikker, Minna Tremonti, Stella Weinberg.

If you have a son or daughter who is part of the class of 2019 and not listed above, please contact Carol Ferguson as soon as possible so they are included. We certainly do not want to miss anyone!
